IV. REPORTS (5 minutes max each)

A. A.S. Executives

Amanda reports that there is a legislative committee for students to join where senators will organize town hall meetings and adjacent business. Bepa reports on an adhoc committee for senators to join. Elections are soon, the next leadership training will be an opportunity for candidates to network and prepare for campaign week.

B. Student Trustee

C. ICC President

D. Faculty Advisor A.S. & ICC

E. Student Life and Leadership Director

F. Student Services Specialist

G. Faculty Senate Liaison

V. NEW BUSINESS

A. Student Senate will discuss and possibly take action on revising the official AS ICE/ Undocumented Community Statement.

Cypress College senators and president comments on ICE statement in collaboration with the AS ICE statement. Senators discuss the possibility of having both a video and written statement for reaching all audiences. Students may also receive a notice on their canvas as well.

Cynthia comments, "Hello. Cynthia Guardado, Faculty Senate Representative and Executive. We have a training we are hosting at Fullerton College. I added Associated Students to the flyer as a collaborator.

I think the training is an opportunity to show the students who AS are.

There will be a Canvas shell. A draft will be made and then AS will review after they return from DC. The idea is faculty will share this page.

Amanda and Joel discuss how senators are at risk of dismissal with accumulation of absences and no confirmed standing/CDO committees.
