VI. NEW BUSINESS

A. The Committee will discuss and consider proposed amendments to the A.S. Governing Documents regarding the sponsorship application deadline. (20 minutes, action)

The committee discussed possible amendments to the Department Sponsorship application deadline. The Chair introduced the idea of extending the application deadline from the fourth week to the seventh week. After discussion, committee members considered different options and developed proposed solutions to present to the Senate. One proposal was to keep the fourth-week deadline while allowing an additional opportunity to apply after the deadline under certain circumstances. The committee also discussed adding language requiring sponsorship funds to be used within the same fiscal year. Committee members provided input on the proposed changes and agreed to present the proposed options to the Senate for further discussion and consideration on Wednesday, September 23.

Mia motioned to hold an ad hoc discussion before the Senate meeting. Giovanni seconded. The motion passed. M/p/u
