IV. REPORTS (2 minutes each)

A. A.S. Executives

Julieta reported that she met with First Year Generation to discuss the Quadchella event and vendor outreach, but planning is behind schedule due to time constraints, so a backup plan may be needed. She also announced that CCC Start will go live on September 30 for incoming students, while the current website will remain unchanged for continuing students. Due to upcoming exams, she will temporarily delegate some of her responsibilities to other executives. Kay reported that the Wok and Talk event was successful and highlighted the strong involvement of senators. Gabriela discussed STEM-related concerns with Daniel and is working with her committee members to research students' concerns regarding STEM classes. Jenn reported that ICC worked on constitutional matters during last week's meeting and that 23 clubs have registered for Harvest Hunt. Amelia reported that her committee secured two additional discounts for A.S. benefits. Vanessa reported that she is working on a flyer for the Harvest Hunt speed-friending event, a Wok and Talk recap post, and the empty glass display case in front of the cafeteria. Kaushal reported that he is working on an Excel spreadsheet to track attendance and senators' involvement.

B. Student Trustee

Samantha reported that district applications have been completed, and she is waiting for an email regarding registration and ballot updates. She hopes to have at least 1,600 students participate and secure some funding for giveaways or goodie bags. She also shared that Gilberto from the Cadena

Cultural Center requested A.S. support and ideas for the Día de los Muertos event.

C. Faculty Advisor and ICC Advisor
Joel reported that he is working on senator nameplates and finalizing the MOU. He also requested that Executive Board members provide their upcoming committee meeting dates so they can be posted on the website, along with Senate meeting dates, to keep students informed.

D. Student Life and Leadership Director
Stephanie reported that Campus Safety contacted her regarding staff parking permits that some members have not yet received. She also shared that the department is planning to hire a Student Services Specialist around November, although the timeline is not confirmed. Stephanie will be working remotely on Fridays but will attend ICC meetings. She also announced that Student Life and Leadership is considering moving commencement from Saturday morning to Friday evening due to the heat, similar to Cypress College. The proposed date is May 28 in the evening, with a slightly later start time to accommodate NOCCCD Board members to join both the commencement.

E. Project Specialist
Jordan expressed appreciation for the events organized by A.S. and shared that she was happy to attend her first Executive Board meeting of the year and see everyone working together to support the campus.

V. NEW BUSINESS

A. The Committee will strategize and discuss potential ways to get a voting student representative on the Curriculum Committee. (10 Mins)
The Committee discussed potential ways to secure voting rights for student representatives on the Curriculum Committee, including the 9+1 rights and possible bylaw changes. Samantha suggested exploring alternative approaches or revising the bylaws. The Committee also discussed concerns that students may lack technical knowledge or be influenced by academic departments. Senator Adam Rivada has applied to serve on the Curriculum Committee, and the Executive Board emphasized the importance of student representation in curriculum decisions that directly affect students. Joel agreed to conduct further research and provide updates.

B. The Committee will develop options for Senators to choose from regarding their preferred type of Senator bonding experience, such as a trip or event. (15 Mins)
The Committee discussed potential bonding activities to strengthen relationships among senators. Several options were considered, including an overnight cabin trip, escape rooms, Knott's Berry Farm, volunteering activities, and renting a movie theater. The Committee also discussed safety concerns regarding overnight activities and will continue exploring suitable options.

C. The Committee will discuss whether to propose changes to the bylaws to make the ICC Representative and Student Trustee voting members of the Senate. (5 Mins)
The Committee discussed potential amendments to the A.S. governing documents to grant voting rights to the ICC President and Student Trustee during Senate meetings, as both currently have voting rights on the Executive Board but not in the Senate. Members highlighted their involvement in student leadership and discussed the improved collaboration between A.S. and ICC. The Committee also acknowledged that ICC had previously declined voting rights for the A.S. Vice President of Activities. The Committee agreed to refer the matter to Kaushal and the Judicial Committee for further discussion and development of a proposal before presenting it to the Senate.

D. The Committee will overview the new budget and make a strategy plan (15 mins)

Amelia, Vice President of Finance, presented an overview of the new budget and explained how funds are allocated across different categories. The Committee reviewed the budget distribution and discussed financial priorities. Further discussions will take place as budget plans and allocations may change in the future.

VI. ANNOUNCEMENTS

VII. ADJOURNMENT:

Chair Julieta Gonzalez adjourned the meeting at 5:30 PM.
